McBride and Bengson Enter Pleas of Not Guilty.

PHILIP VOLKE ACQUITTED.

He Bid Not Have Counterfeit Money in His Possession.

Marcellus Nelson Is Held to Await the Action of the Grand Jury on a Charge of Embezzlement.

Hyrum McBride and John Bengson the | 7 Topele murderers were arraigned in the Third district court yesterday morning and entered pleas of not guilty to an indictment which charges them with the wilful, malicious and premeditated murder of Doctor Elliott at Grantsville on April 17. The case has not been set for aring awaiting the convenience of the defendants' counsel.

VOLKE ACQUITTED.

The case of Philip Nicholas Volke, charged with having counterfeit coin is his possession, was then taken up. Volke was arrested on April II, while under the influence of liquor, and upon being searched a counterfeit dollar was found upon his person, which he was charged with having attempted to pass. Volke is an engineer and has been in the city something over a year. He has been in the habit of sequiring a bright red jag every now and then, but his associates all alleged that his reputation was spolless. alleged that his reputation was spotless.
The presention proved that he endeavered to pass the bogus dollar at two places.
The case reached the jury at 3:30 o'clock, and it took them only a few minutes to return a verdict of not guilty.

AN EXTRA EXPTING OF CRIMINAL CARRY By request of Mr. Stephens an extra-setting of criminal cases was made yester-day for hearing on May 24 and 25.

On May 24 the case of Thomas O'Nelli, charged with manslaughter, will be taken up. O'Nelli was tried before Judge Zane in Pebruary and on the 24th of that mouth was adjudged guilty, with recom-mendations for mercy. Some irregulari-ties were discoven—however, in the jury room and on Feb.—new hearing was granted.
